D. ANDREWS' FEMALE PILLS

The effect of certain medicines having been fully ascertained in such cases, females are rarely misled from their disordered complaints; the expense of one being inadequate in securing immediate relief, removing obstructions from the system, and restoring the blood to its healthy state, ready for all these various conditions so peculiar to the female sex. If you are nothing new, but have been used by the dealer for many years.

Kaplan's directions, stating when they should not be used, with each box. Pills sent to any address on the
